Jubilee Treaty for Economic Justice Between Bermuda Kingdom Nation and the American Slave Nation

I. The High Contracting Parties of The American Slave Nation and The Bermuda Kingdom Nation:

1. CONSCIOUS of the existing ties of history and culture, which have bound their peoples together;
2. ANXIOUS to promote peace and stability through abiding respect for justice and the rule or law and enhancing resilience in their relations;
3. DESIRING to enhance peace, friendship and mutual cooperation on matters affecting above mentioned parties with the spirit and principles of their respective Charters
4. CONVINCED that the settlement of differences or disputes between the above mentioned parties should be regulated by rational, effective and sufficiently flexible procedures, avoiding negative attitudes which might endanger or hinder cooperation;
5. BELIEVING in the need for cooperation with all peace-loving peoples, both within and outside the above mentioned parties countries / areas of residence, in the furtherance of world peace, stability and harmony;

do SOLEMNLY AGREE to enter into a Jubilee Treaty for Economic Justice Between the Bermuda Kingdom Nation and the American Slave Nation within the scope of activity as identified in paragraph II that follows:

II. Scope

a. Responding to their people's common desire for mutual respect, friendship, cooperation, peace, progress, and prosperity, in accordance with the spirit and principles of the of the undersigned;
b. Fully committed to maintaining, renewing, and further strengthening the mutual respect, friendship and cooperation which have been developing between the two parties, as well as their policies of promoting national and regional resilience and independent and constructive neighbourly cooperation;
c. and Conscious of the contributions being made to national development, regional cooperation, and international order,

Having resolved to conclude a treaty for Economic Justice Between Bermuda and the American Slave Nation therefore agree as set forth in Articles 1 through 18 that follow:

CHAPTER I : PURPOSE AND PRINCIPLES

Article 1

Purpose: The purpose of this Treaty is to promote perpetual peace, everlasting amity and cooperation among their peoples which would contribute to their strength, solidarity, mutual Respect, friendship and Cooperation and closer relationship,

Article 2

Principles: In their relations with one another, the High Contracting Parties shall be guided by the following fundamental principles:

a. Mutual respect for the independence, aims, territorial integrity and national identity of all above mentioned parties;

b. The right of the above mentioned parties to lead its existence free from external interference, subversion or coercion;

c. Non-interference in the internal affairs of one another;

d. Settlement of differences or disputes by peaceful means;

e. Effective cooperation among themselves.

Contributions of each High Contracting Parties:

Each Contracting Party shall display and promote respect for each other's independence, sovereign equality, and identity, traditions, and values.

The Parties will contribute toward the further development of peaceful and friendly international relations by strengthening their free institutions, by bringing about a better understanding of the principles upon which these institutions are founded, and by promoting conditions of stability and well - being. They will seek to eliminate conflict in their international economic policies and will encourage economic collaboration between them.

The Parties, individually and in cooperation with each other, by means of continuous and effective self-help and mutual aid will maintain and develop, subject to their constitutional provisions, their capacities to move their respective movements forward in a spirit of positivity.

The Contracting Parties shall endeavour to develop and strengthen traditional, cultural and historical ties of friendship and good-neighbourliness.

The Contracting Parties shall endeavour to maintain and further develop existing programmes of cooperation, and facilitate and promote other areas of cooperation

CHAPTER II : AMITY

Article 3

Amity: In pursuance of the purpose of this Treaty the High Contracting Parties shall endeavour to develop and strengthen the traditional, cultural and historical ties of friendship, good neighbourliness and cooperation which bind them together and shall fulfil in good faith the obligations assumed under this Treaty. In order to promote closer understanding among them, the High Contracting Parties shall encourage and facilitate contact and intercourse among their peoples.

CHAPTER III : COOPERATION

Article 4

Cooperation: The High Contracting Parties shall promote active cooperation in the pursuit of social justice, civil rights, racial harmony, economic, social, technical, scientific and administrative fields as well as in matters of common ideals and aspirations of advancement, peace and stability in all matters of common interest.

Article 5

Cooperation: Pursuant to Article 4 the High Contracting Parties shall exert their maximum efforts multilaterally as well as bilaterally on the basis of equality, non-discrimination and mutual benefit.

Article 6

Cooperation: The High Contracting Parties shall collaborate for the acceleration of the recognition of each others unique cultural uniqueness and economic growth in order to strengthen the foundation for prosperous and peaceful communities around the world. To this end, they shall promote the greater utilization of their ethnic uniqueness for the mutual benefit of their peoples. In this regard, they shall continue to explore all avenues for close and beneficial cooperation with other States as well as international and regional organizations outside the region.

Article 7

Cooperation: The High Contracting Parties, in order to achieve social justice and to raise the standards of living of their culture, shall intensify economic cooperation. For this purpose, they shall adopt appropriate strategies for economic development and mutual assistance.

Article 8

Cooperation: The High Contracting Parties shall strive to achieve the closest cooperation on the widest scale and shall seek to provide assistance to one another in the form of training and research facilities in the social, cultural, technical, scientific and administrative fields.

Article 9

Cooperation: The High Contracting Parties shall endeavour to foster cooperation in the furtherance of the cause of peace, harmony, and stability. To this end, the High Contracting Parties shall maintain regular contacts and consultations with one another on international and regional matters with a view to coordinating their views, actions and policies.

Article 10

Cooperation: Each High Contracting Party shall not in any manner or form participate in any activity which shall constitute a threat to the political and economic stability, sovereignty, or integrity of another High Contracting Party.

Article 11

Cooperation: The High Contracting Parties shall endeavour to strengthen their respective national resilience in their political, economic, socio-cultural as well as security fields in conformity with their respective ideals and aspirations, free from external interference as well as internal subversive activities in order to preserve their respective national identities.

Article 12

Cooperation: The High Contracting Parties in their efforts to achieve regional prosperity and security, shall endeavour to cooperate in all fields for the promotion of regional resilience, based on the principles of self-confidence, self-reliance, mutual respect, cooperation and solidarity which will constitute the foundation for strong and viable communities of Slave Nations.

CHAPTER IV : SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Article 13

Settlement of Disputes: The High Contracting Parties shall have the determination and good faith to prevent disputes from arising. In case disputes on matters directly affecting them should arise, especially disputes likely to disturb regional peace and harmony, they shall refrain from the threat or use of force and shall at all times settle such disputes among themselves through friendly negotiations.

Article 14

Settlement of Disputes: To settle disputes through regional processes, the High Contracting Parties shall constitute, as a continuing body, a High Council comprising a Representative from each of the High Contracting Parties to take cognizance of the existence of disputes or situations likely to disturb peace and harmony.

Article 15

Settlement of Disputes: In the event no solution is reached through direct negotiations, the High Council shall take cognizance of the dispute or the situation and shall recommend to the parties in dispute appropriate means of settlement such as good offices, mediation, inquiry or conciliation. The High Council may however offer its good offices, or upon agreement of the parties in dispute, constitute itself into a committee of mediation, inquiry or conciliation. When deemed necessary, the High Council shall recommend appropriate measures for the prevention of a deterioration of the dispute or the situation.

Article 16

Settlement of Disputes: The foregoing provision of this Chapter shall not apply to a dispute unless all the parties to the dispute agree to their application to that dispute. However, this shall not preclude the other High Contracting Parties not party to the dispute from offering all possible assistance to settle the said dispute. Parties to the dispute should be well disposed towards such offers of assistance.

Article 17

Settlement of Disputes: The High Contracting Parties which are parties to a dispute should be encouraged to take initiatives to solve it by friendly negotiations before resorting to the other procedures provided for.

Article 18

Dissolution: This Treaty may be terminated by mutual consent or by either Party giving 12 months' notice to the other.

EXCHANGE OF INSTRUMENTS OF RATIFICATION

The undersigned may exchange the Instruments of Ratification of the Jubilee Treaty for Economic Justice Between Bermuda and the American Slave Nation by a process upon which all parties have mutually agreed. (in person, electronically, etc.).

The agreed upon exchange of the Instruments of Ratification of the Jubilee Treaty for Economic Justice Between the Bermuda Kingdom Nation and the American Slave Nation, signed by all the High Contracting Parties on March 17, 2022. The location of the exchange is St. George, Bermuda, and Long Beach, California via the Internet.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,

Gerald A. Higginbotham, Prime Minister — March 17, 2022
Name & Title — Date

ALL RITES RESERVED

Corin P.S. Smith, Qore — March 17, 2022
Name & Title — Date

CHAPTER V : General Provision

Article 19

This Treaty shall be signed by THE AMERICAN SLAVE NATION and THE BERMUDA KINGDOM NATION. It shall be ratified in accordance with the constitutional procedures of each signatory Nation.

Article 20

This Treaty shall enter into force on the date of the deposit: March 17, 2022.

Article 21

This Treaty is drawn up in the official languages of the High Contracting Parties, all of which are equally authoritative. There shall be an agreed common translation of the texts in the English language. Any divergent interpretation of the common text shall be settled by negotiation.

IN FAITH THEREOF the High Contracting Parties have signed the Treaty and have hereto affixed their Seals.

DONE in: the City of Long Beach, California and in Town of St. George, Bermuda.

This: Thursday, March 17th in the year 2022.